

WORCESTER CATHEDRAL

Services and Music July 2023

July is end-of-term time. The bittersweet weeks when we celebrate all the work the choristers, organ scholar and choral scholars have done, while getting ready to say goodbye.

July is also the season of ordinations: ordinands being made deacon, deacons ordained priest – all becoming who they are called to be and offering their gifts and the whole of their lives to the glory of God. With all this celebration, you might also notice that this is the month of Howells. There is a good smattering of Tomkins too, to graft the leavers more firmly in to the Worcester root.

As the month goes on, we celebrate other roots, too: we remember St Benedict, whose rule still influences our daily rhythms, and Mary Magdalene, apostle to the apostles. But truly, it's the days between that matter in this green season: keeping the patterns of prayer, welcome and learning that weave our lives together as the seasons turn.
