Worcester Saints: 16 October

On Friday the Church remembers Hugh Latimer—a Leicestershire man, educated at Cambridge, articulate and yet homely in his style of preaching, which made him very popular in the university, and he received its commission to preach anywhere in England. He became a close adviser of King Henry VIII after the latter's rift with the papacy and was appointed Bishop of Worcester in 1535. He lost the king's favour in 1540, over his refusal to sign Henry's 'Six Articles', designed to prevent the spread of Reformation doctrines, and resigned his See. He returned to favour on the accession of Edward VI but was imprisoned in the Tower of London when Queen Mary ascended the throne in 1553. He refused to recant any of his avowedly reformist views and was burnt at the stake, together with Nicholas Ridley, on this day in 1555. (Extract from Exciting Holiness.)

All Saints' and All Souls'

There will be a Sung Eucharist for All Saints' Day at 10.30 am on Sunday 1 November, and a Requiem Eucharist for All Souls' Day at 5.30 pm on Monday 2 November. Incense will be used at both services. If you would like a name to be included on the list of the departed to be remembered at the requiem, please email prayer@worcestercathedral.org.uk mentioning the All Souls' requiem service in your subject line.
